UKRAINIANS SEIZE SEAPORT OF ODESSA

City is Called "Granary of Southeastern Europe," and is Vitrally Important Point.

LONDON, May 7.—Odessa, the chief seaport of southern Russia, was captured by Ukrainian troops a week ago, said a news agency dispatch from Paris today, quoting Lemberg advices.

Odessa has been called "the granary of southeastern Europe" and is of tremendous importance not only to Russia but to all southeastern Europe. It was through Odessa that Russia formerly exported her enormous wheat crop.

It was the fourth city in point of population in the Russian empire. The last census, taken in 1901, placed its population at approximately 500,000.
